

Coverings and partitions by monochromatic components - problems and results

András Gyárfás , Alfréd Rényi Institute of Mathematics

A basic remark of Erdős and Rado states that in any coloring of the edges of a complete graph with two colors there is a monochromatic spanning tree. This remark have been generalized in many ways, in this talk I focus on recent results and problems.