

Graph Theory and General Topology

I will present a topological perspective starting with graphs as we know them and moving on to more general topological objects. The motivation stems partly from recent work by Diestel and his students. I will give results of a combinatorial inspiration which apply to these topological objects, revisit Menger's Theorem in its early form, and, time permitting, discuss a few open problems.